

VISIT...

LANZAROTE
Caliente.COM

SWRL

GINN AND COMPANY

A XEROX EDUCATION COMPANY

0-663-24 674-1

Mat is Wet

Book 47

Mat sits in the sun.

He has his hat and bell.

He has the ball.

Mat Is Wet

SWRL

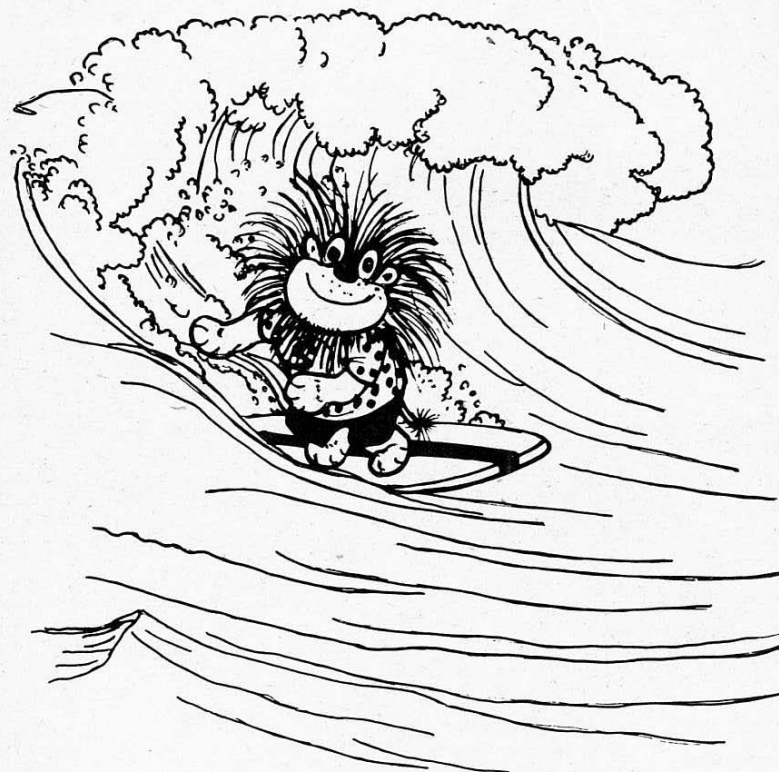

GINN AND COMPANY
A XEROX EDUCATION COMPANY

Sam and Mit feel sad.

Mit has the bell.

He sets the hat on his ball.

Sam has fun.

"He met a bad fish," said Sam.

"A bad fish has him."

"See Sam," said Mit.

"I wish to be on that."

"Mat fell," said Mit.

"But see his hat and bell."

Mit fell.

He is not on it.

But see his feet.

New Words:

bell
but has said

Plot Summary

Sam has a surfboard. He has fun riding the waves. He lets Mit and Mat have turns on his board. Mat falls off the board and disappears in the water. When Sam and Mit see Mat's hat and bell drift ashore, they fear Mat is lost. Mat is safe, however, but decides that sun is better than surf.

Story Questions

1. p.1 – How is Sam having fun in the ocean?
2. p.2 – Who is watching him from the shore?
3. pp.3-7 – What does Sam do for his friends?
4. p.10 – What do Sam and Mit think has happened to Mat when they find his hat and bell?
5. p.14 – How does Mat feel?

Mat is wet,
but he is well.

Mat and Mit sit.

Mat has a bell and a hat.

Mit has a ball.

"This is not Mat,
but it is his bell."

"This is fun," said Mit.

"I sit on it."

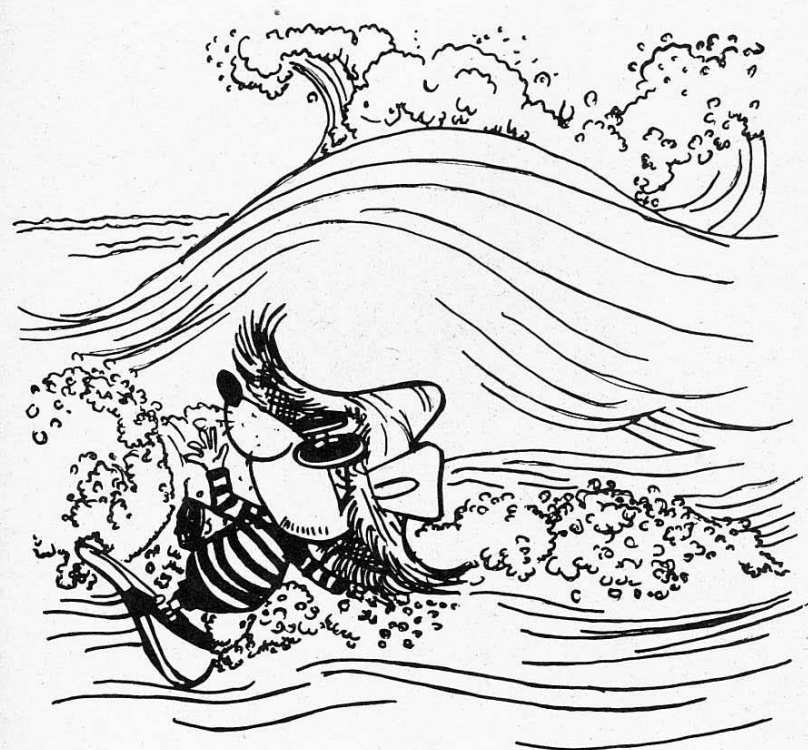

"Is this his hat?"

Is this his bell?"

"I wish to be on that," said Mat.

"Let me sit on it."

Mat has his wish.

He is on it, but will that hit him?